FEATURES

33 THE MAGIC OF CANDICE NIGHT It's not easy being vocalist for Blackmore's Night but like the Renaissance Faires she loves, Candice Night's voice evokes a mythic timeless elsewhere with roots in both fantasy and history. We were able to catch up with Candice during a break from her recording of the latest Blackmore's Night release, The Secret Voyage. INTERVIEW BY KOHINOOR SETORA.

38 SPEAKING OF MAGICK: A CONVERSATION WITH DONALD MICHAEL KRAIG, LON MILO DUQUETTE AND PHIL HINE. We all have magickal potential, but how do we explore it? We rounded up three experienced practitioners to learn from the masters. INTERVIEW BY MICHAEL NIGHT SKY.

44 WITCHES WITH WEAPONS: THE CASE FOR FIREARMS IN PAGAN SPIRITUALITY

▪ For many, incorporating weapons into one's spiritual practice is anathema. Some grudgingly permit an athame, or even a sword but the line is usually drawn there. But a growing number of Pagans are coming to integrate the active use of firearms into their spiritual practice. BY WINTERSONG TASHLIN AND GALINA KRASSKOVA.

48 SAVING YOUR NECK IN FIVE EASY STEPS. Drained? Light-Headed? Energy gone? You may have just encountered a psychic vampire. But all is not lost — fight back! BY MICHELLE BELANGER.

53 THE WANDERING WITCH GOES TO SALEM. Salem is neither a sacred site nor a spiritual center. Yet, Pagans find themselves wanting to come here. Transcending the kitsch is a rare sense of acceptance of the Pagan Path; you can walk down the streets of Salem wearing a pentacle as big as your face and no one will say "boo" to you — except, of course, if it's Halloween. Then, anything goes. BY NATALIE ZAMAN.

58 VALHALLA WITH A TWIST OF LETHE. Thor was searching for the Muse of Rock-n-Roll. Too bad a god can't really get the blues. Or can he? FICTION BY PHIL BRUCATO.
